

Short course on Nutrition in G.I. disorder

Department of Surgical Gastroenterology

on 9,10,& 11 November 2017 @ Academic section III Floor, JIPMER

Target participants: Dietician, Dietetic students & Nurses

Maximum participants :30 nos.

Day I

- Medical disorders of Gastrointestinal system
- Surgical disorders of Gastrointestinal system
- Malnutrition and clinical outcome
- Drug induced nutrition depletion
- Preventing nutritional risks
- Assessing nutritional status – various techniques
- Different technique to calculate Ht. and Wt.
- SGA, MUST and NRS 2002

Day II

- Basics of nutrition
- Meal plan – Diabetics mellitus, Kidney disorders
- Nutrition management in GI disorders, extensive gut resection, cancer patient
- Nutrition in liver and pancreatic diseases
- Bariatric surgery – pre & post dietary management
- Enteral nutrition – diet and devices, recent guidelines, practical handling

Day III

- Parenteral nutrition – calculation, how to handle
- Supplementary PN
- Guidelines confusing or convincing
- IDPN do and don'ts
- 10 commandments of starting PN
- Beyond calories
- EN Vs PN
- New trends on clinical nutrition

Course Chairman

Dr Biju Pottakkat,
Addl. Prof. & Head
Dept of SGE,
JIPMER

Course Co-ordinator

Mrs. D.Uma Sankari
Junior Dietician,
Dept. of Dietetics
JIPMER

Registration fee: Rs. 1000/-

For Registration: Contact- D.Uma Sankari, Junior Dietician

Ph: 9943111666, 2297362.

sgecourses@jipmer.edu.in