

Awards received by the Residents of Department of surgery at the 80th Annual Conference of the Association of Surgeons of India (VIRTUAL ASICON 2020).

The following awards were received by the residents of the Department of Surgery, JIPMER at the 80th Annual Conference of the Association of Surgeons of India (VIRTUAL ASICON 2020) held at Bhubaneswar from 17th-19th December 2020.

Dr. C Palanivelu Best Postgraduate Paper

1. Dr. PRAKASH L D, Junior resident received the Dr. C Palanivelu Best Postgraduate Paper (First prize) for the paper entitled "Role of serum tumour necrosis factor like weak inducer of apoptosis (TWEAK) and haematological markers in predicting severity of acute pancreatitis". The paper was co-authored by Sarath Chandra Sistla, Prashant S Adole, Prabhu M.
2. Dr GURUSHANKARI B, Junior resident received the Dr. C Palanivelu Best Postgraduate Paper (First prize) for the paper entitled "Hunger based Vs conventional oral feeding in moderate and severe acute pancreatitis". The paper was co-authored by Ashwin Rai, Anandhi Amaranathan, Sureshkumar Sathasivam, Vikram Kate
3. Dr. SUDHARSHAN M, Junior resident received the Dr. C Palanivelu Best Postgraduate Paper (First prize) for the paper entitled "Procalcitonin and CRP as an early predictor of infection in GI cancer surgery". The paper was co-authored by Ujjwal Das, Sureshkumar Sathasivam, Apurba Sankar Sastry, Anandhi Amarnathan
4. Dr BALAMURUGAN S, Junior resident received the Dr. C Palanivelu Best Postgraduate Paper (Second prize) for the paper entitled "Effect of Tamoxifen on Ki67 expression in ER receptor positive breast cancer- A window of opportunity trial". The paper was co-authored by D. Kadambari, Pampa Ch Toi , Aslam.
5. Dr. PRANAVI AR, Junior resident received the Dr. C Palanivelu Best Postgraduate Paper (Third prize) for the paper entitled "Comparison of adapted enhanced recovery after surgery pathway Vs standard care in patients undergoing emergency laparotomy for perforation peritonitis- RCT". The paper was co-authored by Vikram Kate, Suresh Kumar S, Pankaj Kundra, Mahalakshmy T.
6. Dr. SINDHUJA RAMANAN, Junior resident received the Dr. C Palanivelu Best Postgraduate Paper (Third prize) for the paper entitled "The role of sarcopenia in predicting the post-operative morbidity and perioperative mortality in patients undergoing elective surgery for gastric cancer". The paper was co-authored by Anandhi Amaranathan, Deepak Bharathi S, T. Mahalakshmy, Vikram Kate
7. Dr. SRI HARI PRIYA VEMULAKONDA, Junior resident received the Dr. C Palanivelu Best Postgraduate Paper (Third prize) for the paper entitled "Extraoesophageal symptoms in patients with GERD-A descriptive study". The paper was co-authored by Sandeep Bhattarai, TP Elamurugan, Sunil Kumar Saxena

Best Research Paper

1. Dr EVANGELINE MARY KIRUBA SAMUEL, Junior resident received the Best Research Paper (Second Prize) for the paper entitled "Role of nutritional biomarkers in predicting post-operative complications among patients who undergo elective abdominal surgery". The paper was co-authored by Hemamalini Raghuraman, Nivedita Nanda, Mahalakshmy T, Elamurugan T. P. Gomathi Shankar, Vikram Kate.
2. Dr ANGELINE MARY, Junior resident received the Best Research Paper (Second prize) for the paper entitled "Additional of perineural bupivacaine infiltration to control post-operative pain and inguinodynia in patients undergoing tension free meshplasty under spinal anesthesia – A randomized control trail”. The paper was co-authored by Amaranathan Anandhi, Gubbi Shamanna Sreenath, Sathasivam Sureshkumar, Srinivasan Swaminathan

3. Dr. ANBARASAN S, Junior resident received the Best Research Paper (Second prize) for the paper entitled “Association of Helicobacter pylori and Epstein–Barr virus co-infection in gastric cancer patients - a prospective analytical study”. The paper was co-authored by Suresh Kumar, Vikram Kate, Anandhi, Rahul Dhodapkar, Palanivel, Rajesh BS

Best Poster Award

1. Dr Sejal Jain, Junior resident received the Best Poster Award (First prize) for the paper entitled “Acute gastric dilatation leading to ischemic necrosis- a rare complication following sigmoid volvulus”. The paper was co-authored by Balakrishnan Gurushankari, Sathasivam Sureshkumar, Amaranathan Anandhi, Debasis Naik, Vikram Kate.
2. Dr Balamurugan S, Junior resident received the Best Poster Award (Second prize) session for the paper entitled “Closed Bowel Obstruction – an unusual and forgotten complication of feeding jejunostomy: a rare case report”. The paper was co-authored Rajkumar, Rajneesh, Aslam, Ranjith Kothagattu.
3. Dr. Sethupathi S, Junior resident received the Best Poster Award (Second prize) for the paper entitled “Zygomycosis – A mimicker of Soft tissue sarcoma – A rare presentation”. The paper was co-authored by Elamurugan T P, Nandakishore M, Rajagopalan, Prashanth.
4. Dr Sudharshan M, Junior resident received the Best Poster Award (Third prize) for the paper entitled “Acute Pancreatitis as an Index manifestation of Parathyroid adenoma – A case report”. The paper was co-authored by Kavitha Chaudhari, Noyal Mariya Joseph, Anandhi A, Sureshkumar S, Deepak Barathi, Vikram Kate.
