9th JIPMER Research Day 2024

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The 9th JIPMER Research Day will be celebrated on March 9, 2024. There will be opportunities for presentation of research papers by undergraduate students, postgraduate students, senior residents, research scholars, research staff and faculty during the Research Day. All students, residents, research scholars and faculty members of the institute are expected to participate in this program.

The following prizes and awards will be given during the function:

1. Research prizes based on papers presented in the following categories:

1. Undergraduate: GJ STRAUS/ICMR STS (MBBS/Nursing/AHS)
2. Postgraduate: MSc/MPH/Biostatistics
3. Junior residents (MD/MS)
4. Senior residents (including DM/MCh)
5. PhD scholars
6. Non-student research staff
7. Faculty (research in progress)
8. Faculty (published research)

2. Faculty research awards based on research contribution over the last five years (from 2019 or later; a separate circular for with details is being issued for this)

1. Faculty research award in Clinical/Nursing Sciences (1)
2. Faculty research award in Basic Sciences (1)

Undergraduate (UG) students who have received the JIPMER Golden Jubilee-STRAUS Fellowship 2023 must submit their work for oral/poster presentations. ICMR STS projects approved in the year 2023-24 can be submitted for oral/poster presentations. For ICMR projects, an undertaking signed by the guide that the report has been sent to ICMR should be submitted along with the abstract. The paper should not have been presented earlier on Research Day.

Postgraduate (PG) students who are completing their thesis in February 2024 or have submitted their dissertation books in 2023 are encouraged to submit their thesis for oral/poster presentation. PG students from other batches interested in presenting their original research work are also invited. The paper should not have been presented earlier on Research Day.

For faculty (published) presentation, the paper should have been published in the last one year i.e., from January 2023 to December 2023 and it should be based on research work done at JIPMER. The paper should not have been presented earlier on Research Day. For faculty (research in progress) presentation, the abstracts should be based on research projects that are currently ongoing or concluded during 2023 at JIPMER and should not have been published or presented earlier on Research Day. Papers in both these categories will be considered for oral or poster presentation.

For postgraduate students, senior residents, PhD scholars and MSc, published work as per above mentioned criteria or unpublished work can be submitted. For published papers, the presenter must be an author of the paper submitted for presentation.

Each faculty/research scholar/resident/student can submit only ONE abstract for presentation. Submission of more than one abstract as presenter will lead to automatic disqualification. Only original work should be submitted. Case reports/reviews/other types of manuscripts will not be considered.

Abstracts can be submitted by clicking on this link or on the blue button below: Submit Abstract. The last date for submitting abstracts is 31st January 2024. Abstracts once submitted can be edited until 31.01.2024. Please note that a Google login will be required because this and other features are enabled. The length of the abstract should be limited to the character count indicated in the form. For questions/clarifications, please email rd.jipmer@gmail.com.
