Dr. R P Swaminathan, Dean (Research) welcomed the members.

The following were the decisions after the deliberation:

1. It was decided to have the presentations of all the 24 awardees of GJ-STRAUS 2018 on 21st and 22nd of January 2019 divided and scheduled from 2.00-5.00 pm on each day followed by award of the certificate
2. Notification requesting proposals for GJ-STRAUS award 2019 would be sent out by early-November with a submission deadline of January 31st 2019.
- It was decided to strictly adhere to the UGRMC guidelines wherein a faculty would not be engaged as guide in more than one proposal and there shall not be a co-guide from the same department.
3. Evaluation method for proposal was discussed and it was decided upon that all the proposals shall be screened by the UGRMC Committee members with comments/remarks and all the students will be made to present their proposal and evaluated by the judges and would be scored. The proposals to be selected for the award would be chosen based on the scoring by evaluators. The number of awards would remain the same as last year i.e. 20 in open for all undergraduates, 4 in BSc Nursing, 1 for MLT and 1 for BSC (AMS). It was also agreed upon that the proposal wherein active involvement of the students will be preferred and also the role of the student in the conduct of research should be clearly mentioned.
4. The meeting concluded with the secretary thanking all the members
