

Instructions to the Authors

1. Review articles, Case reports, Conference Summaries, Abstracts of original articles published in various international or national journals are welcomed.

2. Instructions for Review Articles:

Review articles relevant to topics of CME are welcomed. Approximate word limit for a review article is 1500 excluding references. Only five references and two tables per review article are permitted.

Instructions for Case Reports:

Case reports upto 1000 words are welcomed. Case report must be relevant to clinical practice and not just of academic interest. Up to two figures are permitted for each case report. Only four references are permitted for each case report.

Conference summaries and Abstracts of Original articles:

This section welcomes summaries of recent conferences or selected abstract from various international and national journals. The limit for conference summaries is 1000 words and for conference abstracts are 250 words. This section welcomes only practice changing topics or topics of significant clinical interest. No abstract without clinical relevance are permitted.

3. Authors are encouraged to include data from Indian subcontinent if available.
4. Final decision for publication will be taken by the editorial board. In case of any conflicts editor-in-chief decision will be final.
5. All articles will be subject to copy editing for suitability for publication in news letter and all sections will be edited before publication by the respective sections editor.
6. All articles must contain the complete contact details of the corresponding author with an e-mail address. Up to four authors are permitted in all sections.
7. All references must be arranged in Vancouver style.