

LAURELS TO THE JIPMER BIOSTATISTICS DEPARTMENT

Biostatistics Research Scholars Won Prestigious Awards

Sachit Ganapathy, Research Scholar, Department of Biostatistics, JIPMER has been selected for the Very Prestigious Prof. R.N. Srivastava National Award for the Best Researcher in Biostatistics for the year 2022 during the 40th Annual Conference of Indian Society for Medical Statistics (ISMS) held in Krishna Institute of Medical Sciences, Karad, Maharashtra. His work on “Utility of Bayesian Network Model for prediction of binary outcome: An exploratory study of mortality prediction amongst squamous cell carcinoma of oral cavity” was made him to achieve this prestigious National Award. This paper was co-authored by Dr. N Sreekumaran Nair, Dr. Harichandrakumar K T, Dr. Prasanth Penumadu, Dr. Kadhiravan Tamilarasu. Every year society select one best Young Researcher (<45 years) in the field of Biostatistics through a competitive evaluation and presentation. The award will be given during the Inaugural function of the next conference.

Deepthy M S, Research Scholar, Department of Biostatistics, JIPMER has been selected for Prof. K R Sundaram Best Young Research Scholar Award for the year 2022 during the 40th Annual Conference of Indian Society for Medical Statistics (ISMS) held in Krishna Institute of Medical Sciences, Karad, Maharashtra. The award will be given during the Inaugural function of the next conference.

Congratulations!